

I enjoyed the talk

I have learned something new

I now have a greater understanding of the wide variety of jobs available within the automotive sector / related technology companies, and the types of skills needed.

I now understand that the Automotive 30% Club and its members are aiming to achieve a better gender balance in the automotive sector.

I would now consider a career in the automotive sector and related technology companies

